Join us December 12 for our Instant Discounts lighting webinar

MidAmerican Energy and Alliant Energy will be moving nonresidential prescriptive lighting to the Instant Discounts program in 2024. Join our December 12 webinar to learn about the lighting products that will be offered in the 2024 Instant Discounts program. MidAmerican, Alliant Energy and program partner DNV will present the product and incentive list, provide information on how to participate and answer questions related to the program.

The Instant Discounts program is just one of many opportunities for customers to save energy and money. For additional 2024-2028 energy efficiency program updates, refer to Alliant Energy's Dealer network newsletter and to MidAmerican's Trade Ally Central for the most up to date information.
