

Instant Discounts Program

The presentation and recording from the Instant Discounts webinar that was held on November 10, 2022, are now available:

The new Instant Discounts program will change the way rebates are delivered to customers for select lighting and HVAC equipment. Rebates will be paid directly to a participating distributor and then passed on instantly to the customer, eliminating paper/online rebate forms and reducing the cost of the equipment at the time of sale. If you have questions or comments regarding the Instant Discounts program, please contact:
